A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Dear Mr Jackson".

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the implementation of the European Copyright Directive which I have read with interest.

I will pass on your views requesting that they are considered as part of the consultation process.

I am grateful to you for drawing this to my attention because I was unaware of this Directive and the possibility of a Statutory Instrument being introduced as and when it is published.

Obviously, if you want to come and discuss this with me, may I suggest that you telephone my office in Chelmsford (tel no: 01245 352872) to arrange a time at one of my surgeries?
